Transcriber's Office

March 24, 1998 LB 1229A, 1229

SENATOR BOHLKE: ...and as guidelines.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: But isn't it because we don't trust them to do it on their own?

SENATOR BOHLKE: I think that the schools see it as the state Department of Education and policy to look, to give them those guidelines.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Wasn't Ginger Rogers, Fred Astaire's tap-dancing partner, ginger? (Laugh) Thank you.

PRESIDENT ROBAK: Thank you, Senator Chambers. You may continue.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: I just have one other comment. When sis...Senator...I started to say "Sister" Chris Peterson, but since she moved out of the culture corner, I have to be more formal. Since the Honorable Senator Chris Peterson, from Grand Island, moved out of the culture corner things have really changed, but not really. When she used to sit where Senator Thompson is sitting, and I would really be caught up in what I was saying, she'd put these eye glasses on, these dark glasses, and around the rim were these little lights that would all flicker and run around the rim of the light...the glass, and it would make me lose my thought, momentarily. She doesn't do that anymore. Now she has got wise. She has got a piece of ice on her hand that would sink the Titanic, and she makes it catch the light just right, and it flickers and shines more than those glasses. So I want to tell, Senator Peterson, when I'm talking, cover that ice up. Thank you very much. (Laughter)

PRESIDENT ROBAK: Thank you, Senator Chambers. Is there any further discussion on the advancement of LB 1229? Seeing none, the question before you is the advancement of LB 1229. All those in favor say aye. All those opposed nay. LB 1229 advances. LB 1229A.

CLERK: (LB) 1229A, no E & R. Senator Bohlke would move to amend. (See AM3656 on page 1022 of the Legislative Journal.)

PRESIDENT ROBAK: Chair recognizes Senator Bohlke to open on her
